

Beachfront Jazz 2026 Returns with a Star-Studded Lineup

Live Launch on TTT – September 30th at 7:15am

Tobago's premier jazz experience is back and bigger than ever. Beachfront Jazz 2026 will light up the Magdalena Grand Beach & Golf Resort from April 30th to May 3rd, as part of the Tobago Jazz Music and Golf Weekend. With a drinks-inclusive ticket price of $800, this year's festival promises a vibrant celebration of Caribbean jazz rhythms.

Following the success of Beachfront Jazz 2025, described as, "a cultural movement" and "a beacon of world-class musical excellence in the Caribbean," the 2026 edition continues to raise the bar. Last year's event featured unforgettable performances from artists like Elan Trotman, Freetown Collective and Grammy-nominated pianist Bob Baldwin, whose Tobago debut was hailed as "genuine and heartwarming." His genre-blending set infused jazz, funk, Latin and Brazilian rhythms, leaving audiences spellbound.

Ron Reid

This year, Beachfront Jazz welcomes an electrifying lineup of artists, Caribbean Folk music bassist, Ron Reid, the dynamic powerhouse and vocal superstar, Terri Lyons, the soulful soprano, Llettesha Sylvester and many more. The festival promises four (4) days of musical excellence, set against the breathtaking backdrop of Tobago's coastline.

The official launch of Beachfront Jazz 2026 will be broadcast LIVE on TTT on September 30th at 7:15am, offering viewers exclusive artist reveals, behind-the-scenes insights and a taste of the magic to come.

Whether you're a jazz aficionado or simply seeking an elevated island experience, Beachfront Jazz 2026 is your destination for rhythm, relaxation, and revelry.
